- Retroactive
 - A retroactive withdrawal may be granted only when a student has experienced circumstances of such serious and compelling nature that s/he could not reasonably have been expected to satisfactorily complete the academic period or submit a petition for regular withdrawal by the deadline specified in the University catalog. Such serious and compelling circumstances may include (but are not limited to) hospitalization, incarceration, debilitating mental illness, or sudden absence at the end of the semester due to family crisis. Failure to academically perform due to factors such as bad habits, poor judgment, time management issues, failed relationships, roommate conflicts, or ignorance of University policies would not generally qualify student for a retroactive withdrawal. The time limit for making this request is the end of the next long semester following the academic period in question.
