12th Day Census Rosters

A Step by Step Tutorial to Recording Census Day Status in Faculty Self-Service / Banner

Office of the University Registrar
12TH DAY CENSUS ROSTERS

- 12th Day Census Rosters will be available to Faculty through Banner Faculty Self-Service: https://banner-self-service.tamucc.edu/ and also via Blackboard.

- Through Faculty Self-Service or Blackboard grade rosters you will report any students that have stopped attending your class as “SA” or never attended as “NA”.

- Mid-Term Grading cycle will always open on the census date/12th class day for long term. This date will be given on the Important Dates Memo sent by our office at the beginning of each term.
12th Day Census Rosters

- From the Banner Faculty Self-Service Login page enter your CAS login information (Island ID and password). If you are having trouble logging in please contact the Computer Help Desk at x2692.

From the Main Menu select Faculty and Advisors. On the next Menu please select MidTerm Grades.

✧ NOTE: For any students that are attending your class but DO NOT appear on your census day roster: 1. Must be instructed to come by the Office of the University Registrar to check on their registration. 2. An e-mail must be sent notifying the Office of the University Registrar of these students. Send e-mail notification to Jenny.Vela@tamucc.edu.

✧ Census Day reporting in Banner Faculty Self-Service and Blackboard is available for one week after the census date. These opening and closing dates will be available in the Important Dates Memo sent by our office at the beginning of each term.
